These Are the Director Skills You Need to Thrive in the New Canadian Childcare System!	Nov 29 & Dec 6, 2022	10:30 - 11:30 am

Changes are coming soon to the Canadian Childcare System. The important, and already challenging, role of the early childhood director is taking on new dimensions. While sources of revenue may ease, managing expansion of childcare slots, staff and expectations will present new challenges. Now is the time to assess your own skill areas and build competence and confidence to successfully manage your changing organization and accountabilities, with special focus on managing time and finances through this evolutionary time. Get ahead of coming changes and be a well prepared leader in the roll-out of a new childcare system.

Professional Learning Community (PLC) Series for Directors & Administrators Fall 2022

PLC Finance Series	Date	Time
When Mission Matters, Money Matters: Align Your Mission and Financial Model	Oct 11 & 18, 2022	9-10 am
When Mission Matters, Money Matters: Align Your Mission and Financial Model	Nov 29 & Dec 6, 2022	9-10 am

Your mission is quality care and education for children. Sustainable finances are the foundation which supports that mission, enabling you to attract and retain a well-educated staff, to support an enriched learning environment, and to build an effective organization to serve families and your community. In this workshop, explore six key metrics to enhance your business and develop strategies toward your own management and leadership goals.

Workshop Learning Objectives:

- Identify the mission statement and its importance to an organization
- Explore components of a balanced business model for enrollment, staffing, and finances
- Identify six key operational metrics that support a financially sustainable organization
- Review the current business model of an organization
- Develop three strategies to strengthen financial support for the organizations mission

Testimonials from PLC participants:

- "Karen taught me to be a successful director! I attended her workshop series and learned about finance, leadership and management and have used the information throughout in my career" – Jill K.
- "Thank you so much for sharing your wealth of knowledge. Probably my favorite part of working in early childhood is the support from the other workers and experts in our field. I appreciate you so very much." – Heidi J.
